

Meet Your Candidates For Student Body President

☆ HARRY REDLICK ☆

The second in a series of articles on the presidential candidates in the forthcoming student election.

By Joe Neil

Ever since Harry Redlick arrived at San Francisco State in the fall of '49, he has been an active participant in student body government and student activities.

When he graduated from Lincoln High School in the spring of '49, he was chosen Senior Class Representative. During the past three years Harry has been an active member of the State Boxing team and has taken part in several intramural events. In '50 he was Sophomore Class President, and in '51 Harry was chairman of the Executive Class Council Committee. While he was a sophomore he was also chairman of the Board of Athletic Control and co-chairman of the Homecoming events.

During the fall semester of '51 and spring semester of '52 Harry was elected treasurer of the ASSFSC. He is also an active member of the Block S Society.

Harry's main theme in his campaign for Student Body President is "to get rid of the clique that's running school politics and have a more representative type of student government."

The following are a few excerpts from Harry Redlick's political platform: "To appoint the most qualified persons on campus, irrespective of affiliations, who will be representative of the total student body." Other items of interest on the platform are the policy of free time schedules to all students and "to make full use of the Activities Need Survey now being compiled, which is to indicate how the students want their activities money spent." Harry also plans to give his full support to a revival of "The Franciscan," a stronger school paper, and a revised policy on the S. F. State Bookstore.

Del Young, State Athlete, Drowned While Swimming

Del Young Jr., a 19-year-old sophomore at State, drowned in the treacherous surf off Ulloa Street Wednesday afternoon. Laird Fort, another Stater and a would-be rescuer, was saved by a Coast Guard helicopter.

Young, a tall, well-built Physical Education major and history student, was a star second baseman for the Golden Gators before heavy studies forced him to drop athletics temporarily.

With a group of about 15 college students at the beach Wednesday, Young apparently became caught in the rough currents of the water beyond the surf. According to reports in the San Francisco Chronicle, attempts to tow the white-faced student in failed, and only the equally exhausted Fort remained to support Young.

When the helicopter arrived Fort and Young had been separated by the surf, and Fort was picked up first. When the helicopter returned Young had vanished in the rough sea.

Young was living at home with his parents (his father played with the San Francisco Seals for seven years, retiring in 1950). He attended Long Beach City College for a year after his graduation from Lincoln High School, where he captained the baseball team.

Coach Dick Boyle of the S. F. State baseball team commented: "He had exceptional fielding ability in the games he played for us."

CAA OK's Basic Grade Standard

A proposal by the executive committee of the Club Advisory Association to place no grade point average restrictions on groups, other than those imposed by the individual organizations themselves, was rejected by the membership of the CAA at the group's monthly meeting on April 8. The "no restrictions" proposal was to affect only on-campus clubs and organizations, not fraternities or sororities.

Acting on a motion by Harry Redlick, the group approved a recommendation that scholarship requirements for all on-campus groups be the minimum scholastic standards required by the registrar's office of the college, and that all officers must have a grade point average of 1.0. The motion was approved by a 13-9 vote with four abstentions. The Board of Directors approved the recommendation at its Tuesday meeting.

CAA Approves Four Council System

A recommendation for the creation of four councils of the Club Advisory Association, service honorary, interest, and religious, was approved by the C. A. A. at their last meeting.

Alan Henderson, chairman and president of C. A. A., Helen Kopas, Charlie Smith, Donald Zeek, and Georgia Dong, acting as a committee, submitted the recommendation for the establishment of these councils. The councils will include the Inter-Fraternity and Inter-Sorority Council already established, and other such service organizations which may be granted on-campus standing; the Honorary Council, to be composed of all honorary organizations having on-campus standing; the Interest-Professional Council, to be comprised of interest and professional groups having on-campus standing; and the Inter-Faith Council, to be composed of the religious and other denominational or non-denominational faith groups having on-campus standing.

SUBMIT RECORDS

Each council will elect a chairman and a secretary and observe common parliamentary procedural practices, and must submit all records of its proceedings to the CAA.

Upon the recommendation of Dorothy E. Wells, dean of women, the committee decided to drop the class council from consideration as this council does not fall under the jurisdiction of the CAA.

The committee informed the CAA that the creation of these four councils will facilitate the operation of the CAA by providing for the clarification of problems which defy immediate solution at the regular meetings of the CAA.

LIMITED INTEREST

Under this system, problems arising in the CAA which are of particular interest to only one group, will be referred to the council concerned for a more individual study with clarification and, perhaps, modification. The final decisions of each council will be referred back to the CAA for final approval. Further modification also will be possible from the general CAA membership.

CAA believes that the establishment of these councils will not only smooth out and hasten the operation of the CAA, but will also give the member organizations a better opportunity to share in common ideas and information.

Third Annual State Fair Set For May 9

Events to Include Booths Concessions, Contests

The third annual San Francisco State Fair will hold the campus spotlight May 9, when its booths, concessions, and contests open their one-night stand at the new campus. Attractions planned include the carnival booths of on-campus organizations, athletic contests, a puppet show, a water show, and a dance. As a pre-fair activity, a donkey baseball game will be played April 29, with proceeds going to help finance the fair. The game will be played on the lower field of the old campus.

According to Willis Wood, activities commissioner, "The emphasis of the fair this year will be on a more co-ordinated program where an individual may see and do many things which will be of personal interest to him. Those students who have never had an interest in activities of the college should come out and take part in this affair, for we hope to show them that student activities aren't just for a limited group on a limited level."

Bert Phillips, who is in charge of publicity for the fair, says that this year's fair will be even bigger and better than the fair last year. "The fair," Bert said, "will benefit both the students and the school."

All three candidates for office of activities commissioner have been appointed by Willis Wood, present commissioner, to assist with the State Fair. Bert Phillips is handling publicity, and DeVon Stanfield is in charge of the dance. Jack McPherson, the third candidate, has not been assigned specific duties as yet.

Free Garbo Movie Sunday

"The Kiss," starring Greta Garbo, the second movie in the new series of motion pictures sponsored by the Associated Students, will be shown free of charge on Sunday, April 20, in Frederic Burk auditorium. Starting time for the movie will be 7:30 p.m., and all students are welcome to attend.

Election Rally Tuesday in Rec Center at Noon

San Francisco State '52 to Cover On-Campus Events and Activities

Work on San Francisco State '52, the senior book, has been completed, and publication is expected on May 1, Dick Sperisen, senior class president, announced yesterday.

In its final form, the book contains pictorial coverage of all on-campus activities, including sports, rallies, dances, clubs, organizations, and class events. Ten pages of the book comprise a special senior section devoted to pictures of graduating students. S. F. State '52 is the only type of yearbook which will be published this year, and only 500 copies will be printed.

According to Diane Daube, co-editor, "The book, has not been designed specifically for seniors alone, but for the entire student body. It has been planned as an all-pictorial review of the activities of S. F. State for the entire year."

The book will sell for $1, and a special yearbook rally featuring top student talent will precede publication of the book.

Students active in preparation of the book include, in addition to Sperisen, Lenore Ricci, photographer, John Weston, Rex Butler, Fran Baher, Joan Lowrey, Bunnie Flood, and Ina Bryant.

McELROY REINSTATED AS SOPH CANDIDATE

Dick McElroy, who had been disqualified as a candidate for sophomore class president, was reinstated Wednesday. The reason for his disqualification by the Board of Directors was that he did not have enough units. However, a check by the registrar's office revealed that an incomplete received by McElroy last term is being made up this semester, giving him the required number of units.

He is now writing a book on social, economic and political conditions in East Asia.

Fran Ashman, vice-president of the organization, announces that tickets for the dance are still available at the Fed office in Music Alley, at the booth in College Hall, and from members. Price of admission is set at $1.75 for couples and $1.00 for tags.

Tickets to the dance may also be purchased at the door.

State Students Planning New Literary Magazine

Publishing original writing of insight and power in any form on any subject of contemporary interest and concern, City Lights, a new bay area magazine, edited by three State students—Peter Martin, Richard Miller, and Norma Swain—begins monthly publication in June.

According to its editors, "City Lights is trying to demonstrate that... people must deal with the totality of experience, and not solely with the particular areas that have come to be regarded as the Proper Arts or the Established Sciences."

Poetry, short stories, excerpts from novels, radio, film, or television scripts, critical articles concerning any aspect of contemporary experience are invited "so long as they are honestly written at the top limits of the writer's ability and understanding."

Donkey Nine Rides April 29

Famous stars will parade at a special athletic event at State April 29. The likes of such stars as Rags, Sally Rand, Joe Louis, Olive Oil, Maggie, Bill Hart, Skippy, Blondie, Mae West, Pee-Wee, Popeye, and Lightning will appear in a parade of talent.

The occasion is San Francisco State's donkey baseball game, to be held at 12:30 on Tuesday, April 29, on the Lower Field. The two competing teams will be a faculty team, headed by Dr. Donald Castleberry, and a student team, captained by Don Johnson. Dr. Castleberry's team will be known as the "Ass-o-Nine."

For those unfamiliar with the game of donkey baseball, it is a baseball game in which the players must compete riding on specially trained donkeys. All players are mounted, with the exception of the batter, pitcher, and catcher. The ball is pitched to the batter until he gets a hit, as there are no balls or strikes called. When the batter gets a fair hit, he mounts the donkey and tries to get to first base. Fielders going after the ball must ride to it; then they are allowed to get off and pick it up, but must get back on the donkey before making the throw. The pitcher and the catcher, who are not mounted, are not allowed to get out of their boxes to get the ball.

After the game, there will be a donkey race. Five players from each side will race from center field to home plate.

The game is an introduction for the State Fair, which will be held at the new campus May 9.

The admission charge to the game of 50 cents with student body card and 75 cents without will go into the fund for the State Fair.

Incidentally, the famous names in the first paragraph are those of donkeys.—By Dale Tussing.

No Receipts For V. A. Insurance

On and after August 1, 1952, the Veterans Administration will discontinue sending receipts for U. S. Government and National Service Life Insurance premiums. The move is an economy measure expected to save $1,000,000 annually.

Policyholders are advised to make payments by check or money order and save the canceled checks or money order stubs in lieu of receipts. VA will continue, however, to maintain the official record of premium payments for the protection of policyholders.

VA will continue to provide a special service for payment received in an amount insufficient to pay the premium due, or payments submitted after the 31-day grace period.

In N.S.L.I. policies, the Veterans Administration has issued approximately twenty million valued at $173 billion. Of course, approximately seven million are in force, valued at nearly $49 billion.

Of the seven million in-force policies, about two million are permanent plans of insurance, such as ordinary life, 20-pay life, 30-pay life and various endowment plans. The balance are 5-year level premium term certificates.

Foreign Students Speak Before League of Women

Musical Program Free to Staters

A program of music ranging from Palestrina to Gershwin will be presented by the Men's Glee Club and the University of California Senior Octet on Tuesday, April 22, in the Frederic Burk auditorium at 8 p.m.

Featured soloists from State will be Brady Bonsall, lyric tenor, Pasha Ashrafi, violinist, and William Novales, pianist.

The Octet will present a travesty on a quartet from Verdi's "Rigoletto," in addition to "You'll Never Walk Alone," from Roger and Hammerstein's "Carousel," a medley from Irving Berlin's "Call Me Madam," and "Never Throw a Lighted Lamp at Mother."

Harold L. Hollingsworth will direct the program, which is free to the public.

Dr. Hugh Baker to Attend U. of Michigan Meeting

Dr. Hugh Baker, college advisor of foreign students, will attend a conference in that field at the University of Michigan next week. As the English Language Institute is located at the university, the teaching of English as a foreign language will be one of the main topics of discussion. Dr. Baker anticipates that this conference will be of special significance.

It Says Here ... Campus Notes

By Joyce McElhinney

Election time has rolled around again. We've seen many students signing petitions for nominations and it brings to mind the many confusions that go along with campaigning. Why, the other day I heard a fella say "That Joe who's running for president is a friend of mine; how 'bout you?" "Well, I don't know," said the other fella, "seems to me as though one of the other opponents would make a better student officer."

My conclusion, that's the way it goes, so why fight it? You vote your way and I'll vote mine.

Alpha Omega is in the midst of making mad plans for their semi-annual barn dance on April 24. Speaking of election time, the results of the election will be announced the evening of the dance.

Looming as one of the important end-of-term events is the wedding of Bonnie Rolphe and Jack Wendt on May 31. Bonnie was a former Golden Gater managing editor and columnist, and is a member of B'n'T. Jack is a member of Phi Eta Chi, and a former board member.

Matrimonial ties will also be tied this Sunday between Harriet Hawkins, Alpha Omega, and Dino Danas.

MOVE TO REINSTATE STUDENT CAR TICKETS

A meeting will be held Monday, April 21, to discuss a plan of action to reinstate the sale of car tickets to students. A committee will be chosen to represent the students, and it will meet later with members of the faculty in outlining a plan of action. The meeting will be held in the Activities Room (CH109) at noon. All those interested are invited to attend and bring their lunches.

Ah, yes, State Fair will be here again May 9. Everyone's working very hard and also arguing about the monopolizing of all the food concessions. What seems to be the trouble? I don't quite know, only that it's a dirty shame.

Before I close I wish to add that news from any organization for this column is welcome. Please leave your information in P. O. Box 1980. Thanks!

Zailian Named to State CSTA Board at Asilomar Meeting

Aram Zailian went to Asilomar last week as a delegate to the State Executive Council of the California Student Teachers Association. He came back the member-at-large of the state board of directors.

Zailian, together with Lydia Dunham, Van Bozarth, Claudine Durić, Marjorie Criswell and Robert E. Preble, was a member of the S. F. State delegation headed by Alan Austin, president of the local CSTA chapter.

CHAPTER REPORTS

The conference opened last Friday morning with the reports of the various chapters scattered at teacher-training institutions throughout the state. Here it was pointed out that the S. F. State group was the largest in Northern California and the third largest in California, being surpassed only by the L. A. State and the University of Southern California chapters. State currently has over 250 members enrolled in CSTA.

Later the meeting broke into committee sessions. Austin and Preble led the fight in the ethics committee for better student teacher education in professional ethics codes and for the establishment of a system of working out problems between student teachers and supervising teachers.

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS

Lydia Dunham and Claudine participated in the sessions of the international relations committee, and Marjorie Criswell took part in the public relations committee. Zailian and Bozarth in the teacher education and professional standards committee helped to draw up a program for better relationships between student and master teachers.

Friday afternoon the delegates reconvened in a general session at which Zailian was elected member-at-large to the state board of directors. Installation of new officers took place that night.

GENERAL SESSION

Saturday the CSTA representatives attended the general session of the California Teachers Association conference, which was being held concurrently at Asilomar, and shortly thereafter returned to San Francisco.

Miss Priscilla Pettinger, faculty sponsor of the State CSTA chapter, accompanied the delegation.—By R. Preble.

Production 'San Francisco '51' Views City Political and Pigeon Situation

Theatre San Francisco, currently playing at 1470 Washington Street, is the only local theatrical group which produces originals exclusively. Last week, in keeping with this policy, the group produced "San Francisco '51", a topical review without music, written by one of the group's founding members, Monty Ash, with the collaboration of Arnold Solkovi.

Aside from a few wise cracks about San Francisco weather, the review was predominantly concerned with local politics. The comment was openly partisan, in itself an interesting development. However, the quality of thought on this subject can be indicated by noting that the chief criticism of the present administration pertained to the pigeon issue.

Even if the factual basis of the review had been more adequate, it could not have competed as a stage production with the immediacy of other news mediums or with the authenticity of the documentary film. As entertainment in the vaudeville vein, it was outclassed in both finish and originality by the Straw Hatter's review.

If by reducing its scope, Theatre San Francisco can achieve a deeper insight into our community than the tourist view via Grayline, it may find legitimate recognition in an unexploited field. Students interested in observing and perhaps supporting an experiment, will find it worth investigating.—By Nancy Jenkinson.

State Mile Relay Team Out to Upset USF Dons

Mural Badminton Tournament Starts Second Round; Horseshoe Contests Start

Yesterday at the new campus competition for both the singles and team badminton championships began. Each organization will enter a five man squad in the team division. In this division points toward the All Sports trophy will also be given to the winning clubs.

In the first round of the tournament Delta Phi Gamma took on Kappa Omega, while a group of freshmen traded serves with the men from Alpha Zeta Sigma. St. Mary's A. C. drew an engagement with the East Bay A. C. and the Sigma Pi Sigmas played Balboa A. C. to round out the schedule.

Signups for the mural horseshoe tourney will be held Thursday, April 24, at the new campus. There will be two types of competition—an individual singles and a team tournament. Points will be given for the All Sports trophy in the team division.

State Swimmers to Enter Relays; 880 Yard Free Style Feature Event

The San Francisco State swim team will compete tomorrow in the third annual Davis relays. Seven colleges and universities representing all of the Northern California collegiate swimming teams will participate.

The 800 yard free style relay will open the tournament, which is a part of the Picnic Day festivities at Davis. The meet will find Stanford favored to repeat its last year's victory. Cal, Santa Clara, Stanford, COP, San Jose State, and Cal Poly are the others.

Andersen Places Third in San Francisco Foil Event

Jack Andersen, Gator fencer, foiled his way into the L. A. Olympic tryouts by taking a third place in the San Francisco open foil events two weeks ago. If he qualifies in the southland he will travel East for finals in Olympic fencing.

Golfers Slaughter Cal Aggies, 19-8, At Harding Park

San Francisco State's linksmen routed a Cal Aggie crew, 19-8, last Wednesday afternoon at the Harding Municipal Golf Course.

Medalist honors were shared by Gatorman Jim Coltrell and Bill Grant, both boys carding an 84. All but two of State's players won their individual matches, and S. F. made a clean sweep of the three team matches.

The winners with their winning scores were: Jim Coltrell, 3-0; Augie Costa, 3-0; Al Piparo, 2-1; and Bill Grant, 2½-½. Dick Briggs and George Shaudra ended up on the short end of a 2-1 score.

GIPSON - LUALHATI, STORER - BERENSMEIER BATTLE OUT BITTER RIVALRIES TOMORROW

By Herb Colton

The Gator relay team gets another shot to even the count after the shocking defeat handed them last week by the University of San Francisco Dons' quartet when the two teams go to the post again tomorrow afternoon in Cox Stadium. Coach Ray Kaufman's thinclads are heavy favorites to hand the Hilltoppers a thorough trouncing in the dual meet, but will be preparing for a relay victory.

On the strength of last week's performances in the three way meet between the Staters, Cal Poly, and USF, the Fulton Ave. gang will be hard pressed to garner more than five firsts.

Ollie Matson can be counted on for a double in the 100 and 220. The Dons' weight man, George Weibel, may produce another pair of firsts by annexing the shot and javelin. The relay could account for the fifth USF win, but Lualhati, Gipson, Posey, and Clayton will be out to avenge the hard luck loss the Gators suffered at the hands of the Don runners. Earl Clayton was unable to see relay action last week on account of an injury sustained in the 220 yard dash.

Tennis Team Meets Davis Netmen This Afternoon

State's tennis team bounces back into competition this afternoon against a net squad from Davis on the Mountain Lake courts at Funs-ton and Lake streets.

The netmen have had a full week's rest, so they will go into this match in better shape than they have been all season.

Coach Kaufman's ace quarter-milers, Vic Gipson and Bob Lualhati, who have thus far split four races, will go all out to cop this rubber match. Gipson took the first two of the season. Since this time Vic has been unable to catch the fleet Lualhati.

Another interesting race will be the high hurdles. Dick Storer will be out to prove that his victory over Freddie Berensmeier last week was no fluke. It is predicted that the winner will have to step over the sticks in at least 15.8 to win.
